

The Danvm Drainage Commissioners confirm that:

Members of the public should have a time slot at the beginning of a meeting of 3 minutes per person provided the question to be asked has previously been raised with the Clerk in writing or by email at least 5 working days prior to the meeting.

The question raised must be relevant to Board function. Members of the public will not receive a response to their question at that meeting. If the Board considers the question raised relevant to Board function, it shall be a matter discussed by the Board or an appropriate Committee or Management. The questioner will receive a response prior to the next Board meeting.
