Internal Drainage Board

DATA SHARING POLICY

1. The Goole & Airmyn Internal Drainage Board (the Board) holds personal data of land owners and land occupiers ('data subjects') within its district. That information is used to enable the Board to carry out its functions.
2. Where the functions of the Board are carried out by Contractors or Third Party Agents ('third parties'), it may be necessary to share personal data with those third parties to enable them to carry out the functions of the board. Where this happens, the Board is a data controller and the third party is a data processor under relevant data protection laws.
3. The Board has considered the lawful basis it relies on to carry out data processing and has determined that it can process the data on the basis set out in Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Under this basis, the Board can process personal data as it carries out its tasks of land drainage and water level management which are in the public interest. The Board's functions are also exercised in accordance with its official authority and powers under law, including the Land Drainage Act 1991.
4. Before personal data is shared, the Board require that a data sharing agreement is in place between the Board and the third party which includes the Terms (attached), to govern the third party's use of the personal data. The Terms must be included to comply with applicable laws.
5. Where there is no data sharing agreement, a separate Agreement including the Terms must be entered into between the Board and the third party, to govern the sharing of personal data, before any personal data is shared.
6. The Board will consider the suitability of the third party to receive such personal data, before a decision is made to share the data.
7. The Board also require the recipient of the data to indemnify the Board in respect of any losses, costs and/or claims it may incur as a result of the third party's treatment of the data.
8. It is not anticipated that the Board will share any special categories of personal data.
9. Data that is shared may consist of data which is publicly available and data which is not publicly available.
10. All data may be shared by post, telephone (where the identity of the recipient has been verified) or secure email. Data may also be shared by non-secure email when it has been assessed as appropriate to do so, given the nature of the data.
11. Data subjects will be informed annually in the Board's Notice of Intended Entry of the possibility that their personal data will be shared. A privacy notice in respect of this, is included in the 'Advice to Landowners and/or Occupiers in receipt of this Notice' on the reverse of the Notice of Intended Entry.
12. Personal data may be shared if this is necessary to protect an individual's vital interests, for example in the case of an accident or emergency.
